The Appearance of Fairness Doctrine is a rule of law requiring government decision-makers to conduct non-court hearings and proceedings in a way that is fair and unbiased in both appearance and fact.

The doctrine requires that adjudicatory or quasi-judicial public hearings meet two requirements:

- They must be procedurally fair.
- They must appear to be conducted by impartial decision-makers.

By following Appearance of Fairness requirements, local governments have a method for disqualifying decision-makers from quasi-judicial hearings who have prejudged the issues, who have a bias in favor of one side in the proceeding, who have a conflict of interest, or who cannot otherwise be impartial. "Ex parte" communications between a decision-maker and a proponent or opponent of the matter being decided are prohibited (RCW 42.36.060).
